ase we were victors. Last season our Gin was known as the EMERY BROS. "STAR" GIN. In consequence of the fact that many perons have confounded it with another kind een compelled to leave out the name Emery ind to insist on the title "STAR." It is proper to remark that this mistake of conounding kinds is almost universal in those ounties where our Star Gins were never sold. Nearly all the "Star" Gins sold in Eastern North Carolina last Fall were sold by myself, and if any had cause to complain have yet to hear from them. On the contrare the testimonials that I received have ost gratifying and abundant, some going so far as to say they "would rather pay the price charged the for "Star" Gin than to use any other kind without charge."
